Dear Anthony Smith

RE: YOUR COMPLAINT ABOUT THE NSW POLICE FORCE (the Police)

Thank you for your correspondence dated 2, 14 & 20 November 2025, in which you raised a complaint regarding NSW Police.

We are writing to tell you our assessment decision about your complaint.

Your complaint

We understand you allege that:

1. Constable Hammer conducted a flawed, contradictory, and malicious investigation of domestic violence incident, as a result you were charged without credible evidence.
2. Constable Hammer falsely portrayed evidence regarding call logs, omitted evidence of a witness statement and ignored cybercrime reports.
3. Superintendent Dunstan and a Professional Standards Duty Officer conducted an inadequate investigation into your misconduct complaint against Constable Hammer.

We may have used different words to describe your allegations or may not have referred to every issue you told us. We have, however, carefully reviewed and considered all that you have provided.

Decision about your complaint

As part of our assessment, we can see you have already submitted your complaint to the Police under reference number EXT2025-6654.

We can see the Police have considered what you told them. We have reviewed the decisions the Police have made. We are satisfied with the handling of your complaint.

Reason for our decision

Under the law, the Police hold the main responsibility for managing and investigating complaints about misconduct by officers and Police employees.

As we are satisfied with the Police handling of your complaint, we will not be taking any further action. We will file and hold your information to assist in identifying patterns and trends in Police misconduct. We trust this information assisted you.

Yours sincerely
