Dear Mr Mellor

RE: YOUR COMPLAINT ABOUT THE NSW POLICE FORCE (the Police)

Thank you for your correspondence dated 13 April 2026, in which you raised a complaint regarding the Police.

We are writing to tell you our assessment decision about your complaint. We have carefully reviewed and considered everything you have told us.

Decision about your complaint

The first step in assessing your complaint is to decide if what you have told us may meet the threshold of serious misconduct or serious maladministration. We have assessed your complaint, and it did not meet this threshold. This means that we cannot:

- investigate your complaint; or
- formally refer your complaint to police under s 47 of the Law Enforcement Conduct Commission Act 2016 (the LECC Act).

Instead, we intend to refer your complaint to police for their information under s 43 of the LECC Act. We will not be taking any further action relating to your complaint. Our enclosed Fact Sheet outlines further information for you regarding our decision. The information referred to police may not be treated as a complaint under Part 8A of the Police Act 1990.

Request for consent

We do, however, require your consent to refer your complaint to the Police. Please let us know by 1 May 2026 by responding to this email. If we do not receive a response, we will not refer your complaint to the Police.

If you tell us you do not want your complaint to be referred to the Police, we will take no further action. We will hold and file your complaint to help identify important patterns and trends regarding Police misconduct and maladministration.

Yours sincerely

LECC Assessments Team
